

HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

Investigating a burst of loud male laughter in Ocean Beach the other day, I discovered the source was a newspaper photo of Elvis and Liberachy. (Yeah, I can spell it but I'd rather not.)

Elvis was holding the candelabra while Liberachy strummed Presley's guitar. They were grinning happily.

"A gruesome twosome," commented the local cliché expert.

"They stink," agreed Sigafos Rappaport.

In Detroit, a Negro religious leader named Sweet Daddy Grace has bought the church where Prophet Jones used to hold forth in vestments of white mink . . . Sweet Daddy doesn't go in for mink, but his inch-long fingernails are painted red, white and blue.

Yeah, and a big truck loaded with chocolate syrup, canned cherries, fruit cake and marshmallows was hit by a freight train near Barstow. The train was splashed with syrup; some Indians got a whiff of the wreckage and made off with a quantity of sweet stuff.

All of us old Iowans—well, there's Frank Swan and I, anyhow—will now stand and give three whoops and a holler for the University of Iowa Hawkeyes.

Their victory over Ohio State Saturday apparently puts 'em in the Rose Bowl. Several hundred thousand former Iowans in Southern California have waited a long time for this.

Me, I was transplanted when only a sprout and have no great nostalgia for the tall corn growing in that deep black loam by the banks of the Mississippi under a harvest moon when you and I were young, Magee.

Corny, huh?

I enjoyed the Point Loma-Mission Bay game Friday afternoon, even if we did lose 13-16.

The Lomans were tackling hard out there; the blocking was sharp at times; and the running and passing attack looked good.

How did they lose, then?

Well, the Mission Bay boys were "up" for this one, and the ball bounced right for 'em, too.

Quarterback Jerry Booth of Point Loma was outstanding. He ran and passed well; his defensive play was superb.

Ted Faris, end, made a lot of tackles.

Others who glittered on defense included Tony Silva, Fred Azevedo, Vern Eppley, Joe Welch, Gary Goehring, Ned Smith, Dick Hall and Fred Gomes.

Gomes made a miraculous catch of a long pass from Booth as seconds ticked away toward the end of the game. However, the gun went off before the Pointers could score the winning touchdown.

"Wives Can Retire, Too," is the title of an article by Lura Macy Diekmann in the November issue of the Journal of Lifetime Living.

She and her husband, Edward A. Diekmann, retired San Diego Police Lieutenant, are Peninsula residents.

"We've been retired for almost two years now," she wrote, "and it's been wonderful. I'm convinced that everything's working out so well because we tackled our retirement problems as a team."

Local 20-30 Club Changes Its Name

At a meeting Monday night in Community Center, the Ocean Beach 20-30 Club decided to change its name to the Peninsula 20-30 Club, it was announced.

Pt. Loma Homecoming Provides Thrills

Point Loma High School lost its Homecoming game to Mission Bay High, 13-16, last Friday but looked good in defeat.

Many alumni were in the stands at the local field and they saw a spectacular hard-fought contest plus colorful queen crowning ceremonies and entertainment by the Lomanettes.

Lynne Phillips was crowned Homecoming Queen. Her attendants were Pat Bailey and Tina Gonzales.

Point Loma's first touchdown climaxed a 50-yard drive featuring Roger Soares, Jerry Booth and Phil Meyer, with Bill Kelley carrying the ball over from the three-yard line. Tony Silva kicked goal.

In the third period Larry Brindley of Mission Bay ran back a punt 70 yards for a touchdown. The try-for-point was good, making it 7-7. Later the visitors blocked a punt by Booth and he recovered it in the end zone for a Buccaneer safety.

With the score 9-7 against them, the Pointers moved downfield in a long sustained drive marked by passes from Booth to the line for 10 yards and then Frank Asaf. Bill Bradford hit Booth went over for the score that made it 13-9.

However, Mission Bay bounced back with a passing attack of its own and Jan Bossard racked up the winning touchdown on an end-around play from the Pointer 10.

Edmund T. Price To Head Campaign For Cal Western 'U' Building Fund

Edmund T. Price, chairman of the board of Solar Aircraft Co., will head the campaign for California Western University's $1,500,000 building fund, Dr. William Rust, university president, announced yesterday.

Price has been a trustee of the university the past several years. The building fund drive is scheduled for early next year. It is the first step in California Western's projected expansion and development program necessary to make possible the university's meeting its constantly growing demand for enrollment.

Cal Western, the only private Protestant, liberal arts college in the San Diego area, received its accreditation last year from the Western College Association. Price pointed out that this is an age in which the development of mature, well-rounded young men and women who are capable of assuming leadership qualities is a major concern of the world today.

"To produce the leaders of tomorrow's world is the challenge higher education faces today," Price said. "This challenge Cal Western is meeting head-on in its curriculum, classroom methods and student activities. It well deserves recognition and support from all adult, thinking persons."

He stressed the need, however, for enlarging the physical plant to keep pace with growth in faculty and student body.

He outlined the building program as construction of a new library, classroom building, school of religion, school of business, dormitories, fine arts building and athletic facilities.

Fashion Show Set Next Wednesday

"Rags to Fine Stitches" will be the theme of a fashion show to be given by St. Charles Academy's Mothers Club Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the SES Hall, 2818 Addison St.

"This year's show will be dramatic as well as stylish," said Mrs. William Fischer, chairman. The theme develops with a waif in rags gazing into the window of a fashionable shop. In a ballet scene, a fairy approaches and touches the waif with her magic wand. She immediately finds herself clad in an original gown which won first prize in the Headdress Ball held in Los Angeles this season.

Other scenes include Santa Claus who strips to a model wearing matador pants and a toreador shirt.

The program also includes a barber shop quartet and ten models who will show the fashions.

A sleigh, which was made by old world craftsmen, will be given to a member of the audience, said Mrs. Fischer.

Mrs. Fischer's committee includes Mrs. Alfred Frank II, co-chairman; Mrs. Drew Smith, decorations; Mrs. John Delaney, tickets; Mrs. Betty Keptner, models; Mrs. George Hughey, foods; Mrs. Robert Menke and Mrs. Frank Burns, publicity; Mrs. William McGann, reservations (AC-2-7693).

CHRISTMAS FAIRY—Patrice Drew Smith, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Drew Smith, 2671 Evergreen St., will portray the fairy in a ballet scene at the St. Charles Academy fashion show Nov. 28 in SES Hall.

BURNER with a BRAIN*

Heat in the Pan Controls
the flame Automatically

The Burner with a Brain* is a NEW automatic feature which works like your oven-heat-control. The sensing element (thermostat) in the center of the top burner presses against the pan... does your temperature watching for you.

You simply dial your regular recipe temperature for the food being prepared. The sensing element turns the flame up or down automatically so your foods never cook faster or slower than they should... and they can't burn.

NEW Gas Ranges combine "automation" with speed...

Just set it and forget it when you cook on the Burner with a Brain.* Once its control dial is set, the temperature won't creep up or down. It is constant, steady and reliable. When cooking french-fries, for instance, it prevents over-heating the grease... thus no splattering — less cleaning to do. You can even go about other tasks, assured that uniform temperature will be maintained. Trade for a new gas range now — "the range that thinks!"

3. Write your line along the same theme as the words compiled. Bring or mail to the Peninsula News office.
4. The Peninsula News will have your entry impartially judged and awarded a Credit Certificate worth $12.00 to the winning contestant.
5. Any contestant may submit more than one line, if desired.
6. This contest closes at 5 p.m. Mondays. All entries must be in the office by that time.
7. In case of ties, identical prizes will be awarded to all tying contestants. The decision of the judges will be final.
